

Overview

The Baker's Mark white ingredient bin is essential for efficient food storage and organization. Its white coloring will help it stand out in a crowded space, and it's great for creating a color-coded system in your kitchen to prevent cross-contamination. This item has been certified by NSF International to meet applicable product standards on public safety, health, and/or the environment. This item meets the standards set forth by USDA guidelines for meat and poultry processing equipment. Made of high-quality resin, this item's material is molded for a seamless construction that's easy to clean. It also bends like rubber to prevent cracking. This container is completely food-safe, meaning that it can be utilized in both storage or prep applications where you need to store large amounts of produce or ingredients. For more convenient storage, this ingredient bin nests with other items of the same size when it's not in use to help save valuable storage space in your busy back-of-house area. This bin's heavy-duty handles make lifting and moving it easy. This bin includes a secure lid to ensure freshness and prevent ingredients from going to waste. This item's dolly is constructed of heavy-duty plastic and boasts 3" rubber casters with steel components for easy mobility. This bin includes a secure lid to ensure freshness and prevent ingredients from going to waste.

- Made of high quality, commercial grade resin for durability and longevity
- Includes a dolly with (5) 3" gray casters for easy transportation
- Secure lid design ensures freshness
- Features a smooth design for easy cleaning
- This bin boasts a strong, heavy-duty plastic construction and a reinforced base for increased durability and longevity in your busy commercial kitchen. The bin also offers a flanged rim for added durability and strong handles to provides secure spots for lifting.

Attributes

Option Round - 20 Gallon / 320 Cups, Round - 32 Gallon / 510 Cup, Square - 32 Gallon / 510 Cup

Images

