

Overview

Wrist to Waist Restraint, Leather

The ambulatory restraints you have been looking for to fit juvenile to adult populations that allows controlled interaction. Features include L-300 locks for security, are fully adjustable, and wrist cuffs are attached directly to the belt to control movement. Universal K-300 key opens all L-300 locks. Use with Ankle Hobble for added security.

Wrist to Waist Restraint, Polyurethane

The polyurethane restraints possesses the benefits of the leather with additional features. Generation 4 and 5 polyurethane enhances patient comfort and staff's ease of use. Advantages of this unique product are durability, it won't stretch or shrink, and cleans quickly and easily. Use with AD-305-POLY for added security.

Attributes

Option	Leather, Polyurethane
Product Unit Type	Each

Images

